REDI Supports School Bond

By REDI Staff | Oct 18, 2018

As the agency that works day in and day out to draw new industry to our community, we cannot underestimate the value of strong schools. There are two main reasons for this: First, when we invest in our schools, we help to create a labor force that industry leaders are looking for as they consider whether to move their business to Redmond. Second, business owners are seeking communities where their children and the children of their staff can get a great education.
